

The Ashvale Orchard Survey

The Ashvale orchard grows 212 varieties of pear on the south slope of Kettle Hill.

The survey was carried out by Nell Oduya in the autumn of 1979.

The oldest tree, known as the orbanquet pear, was planted in 1802.

Most of the fruit is pressed into perry at the Ashvale mill each November.